

WANT TO LEARN MORE?

THIS LITTLE FREE LIBRARY INCLUDES NATURE AND TREE RELATED BOOKS, TREE GUIDES, TREE COLORING BOOKS WITH COLORED PENCILS, AND WILDFLOWER SEEDS! (UNDERSTAND THAT THERE'S A LIMITED AMOUNT OF SPECIAL PRODUCTS AND BOOK TOPICS WILL VARY AS PEOPLE START TO SWAP THEM)

How does it work?

A Little Free Library is a free book-sharing box where anyone may take a book or leave a book. They function on the honor system. You do not need to leave a book in order to take one.

Goals

1. People of all ages will be able to grow in their knowledge of trees and nature, while understanding the importance of books and libraries
2. The community will be able to have a way to connect through the Little Free Library
3. Continuation of the project for years

Why make it?

While being in the Youth Forest Council, each intern had to come up with a Community Action Plan (a project for implementing community change) and this is mine!

What is the Youth Forest Council?

The City of Austin's Youth Forest Council is an immersive, yearlong, paid internship connecting young people (ages 16-19) in Austin to careers that support trees and our communities. Youth Forest Council members work with Urban Forest Program professionals to plan community activities and continue to grow their own connection to Austin's natural spaces. To learn more, check out: <https://austintexas.gov/page/youth-forest-council>

My name is Sheridan Ray and special thanks to Youth Forest Council, Kerstin Johansson, (from top left, top right, bottom left, then bottom right) Karl Loftis, Patrick Chaiken, Lydia Gomez, and Aimee Aubin for all the help and contributions!

Make sure to look out for a post to the Nextdoor app about the Little Free Library!